TOUR DETAILS

By visiting the island center and the historic Old Town Square, you will closely experience the multicultural spirit that has shaped the island over centuries. As you walk among architectural works reflecting the rich history from Ancient Rome to the Ottoman era and the Italian period up to the present day, narrow streets, and lively squares, you will encounter traces of different eras at every step. Especially when stopping at Hippocrates Square and soaking in the atmosphere of this area, which has become a symbol in the history of medicine, you will feel the depth of Kos's cultural heritage even more profoundly.

This enchanting walking tour, lasting approximately 2.5 hours, is conducted with a local guide and a Turkish-speaking interpreter. This way, you will not only explore the sights but also have the opportunity to listen to the stories behind each building, the cultural traces of different periods, and the unique history of the island in the clearest and most engaging way.
