TOUR DETAILS

After arriving at the Port of Rhodes, we meet our Turkish-speaking guide and professional Greek guide who welcome us, and we place our luggage on the bus. Then, we begin our panoramic island tour. Rhodes, which came under Italian rule in 1912, features buildings in the port area that all bear the traces of Italian architecture. We continue our journey on the bus, observing this architecture while listening to our guide's narration.

Our first stop is the Ancient Mandraki Harbor. Here, we get off the bus and receive information from our guide about the history of the area. You will have free time to enjoy the view and take photos. Afterwards, we get back on the bus and continue our tour. We pass panoramically in front of the Murat Reis Mosque and Tomb, which served the Ottoman navy for many years.

Next, we drive up to the Acropolis (Monte Smith). Here, you can enjoy the magnificent view of Rhodes, see the Cretan-style houses, and take photos. From this point, we proceed toward the Old Town area. Our luggage remains on the bus, and we begin our walking tour through the medieval atmosphere, accompanied by our guide.

At 13:30, our walking tour ends and we board our buses again at the Marina Gate. From here, we head to our hotel.
